

Theo Niekus // Report #3

Theo Niekus, one of Holland's great street photographers and author of "Damrak" and "Passengers" began publishing "Report" in 2009. This magazine format monograph is a vibrant collection of street photographs. The images are printed full page without text. Each issue individually continues the series of Theo Niekus' street photography, a life's work. Report was originally inspired by Reportage magazine by Menno van der Koppel and Colin Jacobson, and Daido Moriyama's equally tireless street photography photozine "Record". Each issue is printed on a small print run of just 500 copies, each stamped on the back cover with its individual copy number.
